Program Khas Integrasi Masalah Pembelajaran Spesifik Disleksia Dunia Sains & Teknologi

Zulikha Jamaludin & Husniza Husni

978-967-344-383-3

RM100.00

224 muka surat

Kategori : Pendidikan

Pendidikan sains & teknologi sangat penting untuk diperkenalkan kepada kanak-kanak seawal sekolah rendah lagi. Justeru itu, subjek Dunia Sains dan Teknologi menjadi antara platform penting dalam mengetengahkan ilmu sains dan teknologi bukan sahaja kepada kanak-kanak dengan keupayaan pembelajaran yang normal, namun ia juga menjadi subjek yang penting untuk dikuasai oleh murid-murid yang mengalami masalah pembelajaran, terutamanya disleksia.

Bagi mereka yang mencari satu bahan bacaan lain selain buku teks Dunia Sains dan Teknologi (Tahap 1,2 dan 3), buku ini amat sesuai untuk menjadi bahan bacaan tambahan khususnya kepada murid disleksia. Buku ini berpandukan silibus Dunia Sains dan Teknologi (Tahap 1,2 dan 3) dan menyajikan kandungannya mengikut objektif pembelajaran yang terkandung di dalam silibus tersebut. Dengan teks yang minima serta watak-watak kartun dan penuh warna-warni, buku ini menjadikan pembelajaran sains dan teknologi lebih menarik dan menyeronokkan kepada kanak-kanak. Penyampaian isi kandungan yang kreatif tentunya bakal menarik perhatian kanak-kanak untuk membaca dan sama-sama menghayati ilmu sains dan teknologi secara lebih santai dan menyeronokkan. Aktiviti sains dan teknologi maklumat yang dimuatkan adalah praktikal dan sesuai dengan keupayaan murid disleksia yang selalunya sangat aktif dan kreatif.

Buku ini juga sesuai kepada para guru sains dan ibu bapa yang mahukan kelainan dalam pengajaran dan pembelajaran ilmu sains dan teknologi. Panduan untuk guru dan ibu bapa dalam memperkenal dan mengajar sains kepada anak-anak disleksia yang memulai setiap bab merupakan salah satu kelainan yang positif, menjadikan buku ini bukan hanya berguna sebagai bahan pembelajaran kepada murid disleksia tetapi juga kepada para pendidik kanak-kanak tersebut.

Mengurus Sisa Pepejal di Rumah

Sharifah Norkhadijah Syed Ismail

978-967-344-402-1

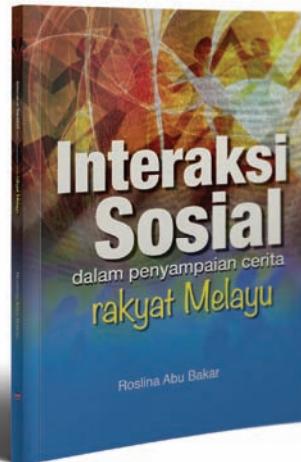

RM28.00

66 muka surat

Kategori : Kejuruteraan Kimia

Mengurus sisa pepejal di rumah merupakan buku panduan umum serba ringkas untuk memberi informasi kepada masyarakat umum berkenaan dengan pengurusan sisa pepejal di rumah. Sebagaimana yang diterangkan dalam buku ini, kita menghasilkan jumlah sisa yang banyak setiap hari. Hampir keseluruhan sisa yang dihasilkan oleh setiap isi rumah tidak melalui proses pengasingan di peringkat awal, yang mana setiap dari kita melupuskan beribu-ribu tan sampah ke tempat pelupusan sampah setiap hari.

Sejajar dengan peningkatan jumlah penduduk dan ekonomi sesebuah Negara, jumlah sisa bertambah saban hari dan turut menambah kesukaran untuk melupuskannya. Oleh itu penting bagi kita memahami serta mendalamai konsep pengasingan sisa seterusnya kitar semula bagi membantu memulihara alam sekitar.

Managing Waqf for Societal Well-Being

Aliah Hanim M.Salleh, Nur Sa'adah Muhammad & Khairul Akmaliah Adham

978-967-344-413-7

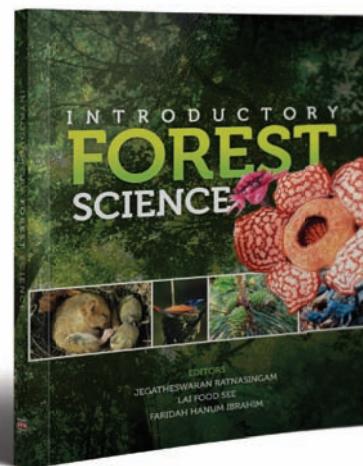

RM28.00

102 pages

Category: Economics

The concept of wealth in Islam is bounded by the Islamic worldview that encompasses the principles of justice, equity and fairness, and aimed at upholding the objectives (Maqasid) of the Shari'ah (Islamic Legal System). Based on Islamic teaching, the ultimate owner of wealth is Allah s.w.t; while man functions mainly as the trustee of the said wealth, or in other words, as fiduciary owner in his role as Allah's vicegerent on earth. Waqf is an instrument of wealth creation and distribution that is based on Islamic divine rules and teachings. Waqf is defined as the perpetual, inalienable instrument of Islamic endowment, which aims at improving the socio-economic well-being of society. Technically, waqf is a form of transfer of assets which is withheld as a trust by individuals or organizational entities, where only the benefits associated with the assets are used for general or specific philanthropic purposes.

Managing Waqf for Social Well-Being is suitable for students, educators and the general public who are interested to learn about waqf and commit to practising/conducting research on waqf-Islam's beautiful wealth management vehicle. Here, waqf practices and situations are described and analysed. This book uniquely offers an emergent framework of 'waqf for societal well-being' which will provide insights for a deeper understanding of the subject and inspire improved practices in managing awqaf.

Introductory Forest Science

Jegatheswaran Ratnasingam, Lai Food See & Faridah Hanum Ibrahim

978-967-344-391-8

RM64.00

171 pages

Category: Forestry

Forestry practices in Malaysia has come a long-way since the country's independence since 1957. The management of the forest resources has shifted away from primary wood production to a more holistic perspective involving economic, environmental and social aspects. The evolving phases in forestry practices in the country have been well documented in an earlier book entitled "Colonial British Forestry and the years thereafter".

This Introductory Forest Science book is an attempt to present the complete array of subject matters involved in the study of forestry science in a single volume. Prepared specifically for first-year undergraduates in forestry curriculum throughout Malaysia and the region, it will also find acceptance among all those interested in the forest and its resources. Written by the experts from the Faculty of Forestry at Universiti Putra Malaysia (UPM), each chapter highlights the fundamentals, key-words, references and learning outcomes about the subject. Its easy reading makes it useful introductory textbook for all those venturing into the field of forestry and should help invigorate their interests into the field of study.

Engineering Composites Properties & Applications

Mohd Sapuan Salit

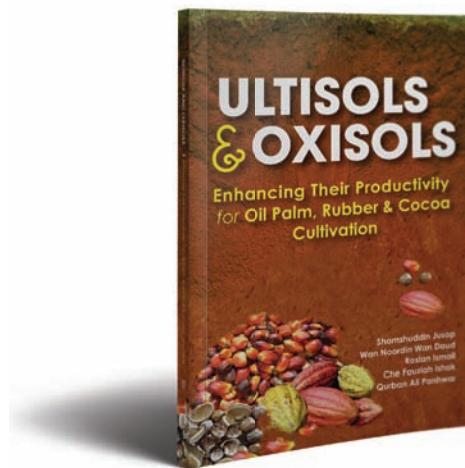

978-967-344-396-3

RM89.00

501 pages

Category: Engineering

In the recent years, there is growing interest in the application of composite materials in industrial and engineering sectors particular being driven by many potentials that they offer such as light weight, high specific strength & stiffness, part integration, corrosion resistance and low manufacturing cost compared to their metal counterparts. Nowadays the use of composites is not only restricted to polymer based composites but has expanded to metal and ceramic matrix composites and the most recent one is nanocomposites. This book is focusing on the properties, characterization, design, fabrication, and application of engineering composites. The major aim of publishing this book is to gather the research finding and information performed by researchers involved in engineering composites research ranging from natural fibre composites, glass field composites, laminated composites, metal matrix composites, reinforced concrete composites, and nanocomposites in the wide of applications such as automotive, aerospace, manufacturing, chemical, packaging, construction, agriculture and marine engineering. This book is equally beneficial for the readers from research and academic communities and for general readership.

Ultisols & Oxisols Enhancing Their Productivity for Oil Palm, Rubber & Cocoa Cultivation

Shamshuddin Jusop, Wan Noordin Wan Daud, Roslan Ismail, Che Fauziah Ishak & Qurban Ali Panhwar

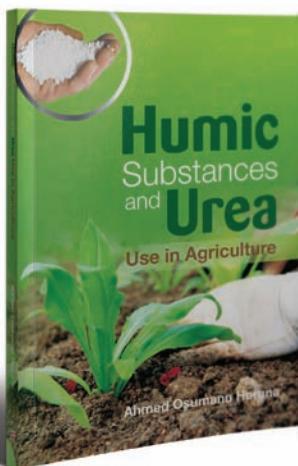

978-967-344-418-2

RM40.00

84 pages

Category: Agriculture

For a long time the economy of Malaysia and many other countries in the tropics is dependent on oil palm, rubber and cocoa productions. In terms of the R&D efforts on these crops, Malaysia takes a leading role. However only a few books on soil/agronomic practices leading to their sustainable production are available. This book is therefore written to alleviate the dearth of information on the arts and sciences of their production. The innovations that have been put in place to sustain crop productivity are explained in detail. The book is written in six chapters. Chapter 1 introduces the subject matter to the readers. Chapter 2 describes in detail the physico-chemical properties of Ultisols and Oxisols in the tropics on which oil palm, rubber and cocoa are usually planted; here the concept of sustainable soil management is introduced. Chapter 3, 4 and 5 review the soil/agronomic practices that have been put in place to sustain the productivity of the respective crops. Chapter 6 summarizes the write-up in terms of soil properties, management practices and future research for sustainable production.

Humic Substances and Urea Use in Agriculture

Ahmed Osumanu Haruna

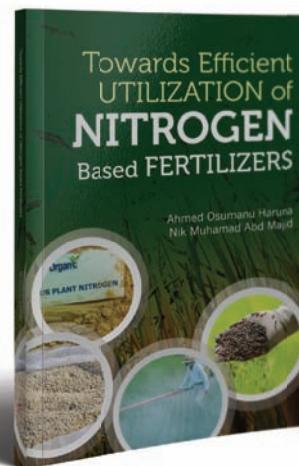

978-967-344-406-9

RM45.00

169 pages

Category: Agriculture

This book serves as a quick reference text for agriculturists, environmentalists, students and early career researchers. Chapter 1 gives an overview of nutrient use efficiency while Chapter 2 details what humic substances are. Some of the major sources of humic substances are discussed in Chapter 3. The isolation and characterization of humic substances are covered in Chapter 4. Aspects such as extraction, fractionation, purification, and characterization of humic substances from different sources are discussed in Chapter 5. Chapter 6 focuses on control of ammonia volatilization using humic substances isolated from different sources while the effects of the humic substances on nutrient use efficiency, crop growth and development as well as their effects on soil chemical properties are dealt with in Chapter 7.

Towards Efficient Utilization of Nitrogen Based Fertilizers

Finally the third section describes the morphology and ecology of terrestrial bird species that also utilizes wetland areas in search for food and shelter.

Tips for Academics A Collection of Short Stories and Personal Opinion 2nd Edition

Shamshuddin Jusop

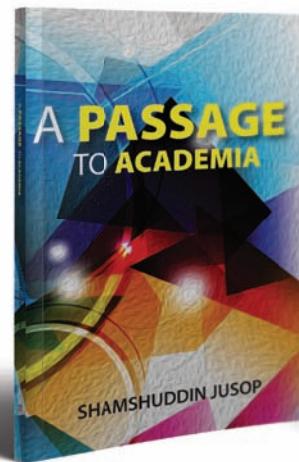

978-967-344-441-0

RM50.00

312 pages

Category: General

Unlike in the west or Japan, writers in Malaysia are unable to make a decent living via their creative skills. This is because not many people in the country like to read books/novels, let alone writing them. This is not consistent with the vision of Malaysia to be a developed country comes the year 2020. The idea of writing this memoir came from the fact that academics need to be convinced that writing is good in itself, and that books and papers in journals are good for the development of the nation. This memoir contains personal thoughts and short stories written based on the academic journey gone through by the author. It is hope that the information contained in the memoir would serve as tips for the young and up and coming academics.

A Passage to Academia

Shamshuddin Jusop

978-967-344-447-2

RM32.00

124 pages

Category: Biography

Life in academia is hectic to say the least where professors are always on the move to fulfil their KPIs, but it can still be both interesting and rewarding. In the line of duty, the academicians meet people from various walks of life – from ordinary guys in the street to the best minds in the world. Besides, academicians are in close contact with the young minds and that makes professors feel young and wanted. Travelling to attend conferences and meetings or consulting works is their order of business. At these meetings, they meet old friends and make new ones and have the opportunities to exchange ideas. This memoir is a compilation of those ideas and thoughts resulting from such meetings. Additionally, memorable incidents that occurred in the family were inserted into the memoir to prove those points. The author always has this thought in mind – a book that sells must have poignant, humor and sensation in it. The intention of writing this memoir is to make it readable, acceptable and useful to students, academicians and members of the public alike.

Latihan Bab bertujuan untuk memberi latihan tambahan kepada pembaca sekiranya perlu. Bagi menajamkan lagi pemahaman pembaca juga digalakkan untuk mengutip data sendiri atau menggunakan data sebenarnya seterusnya menggunakan teknik ADT.

Bibliography: Japanese Contribution Towards Agriculture, Science, and Socio-Economic Development in Malaysia and the ASEAN Region

Shaharudin Saamin

978-967-344-320-8

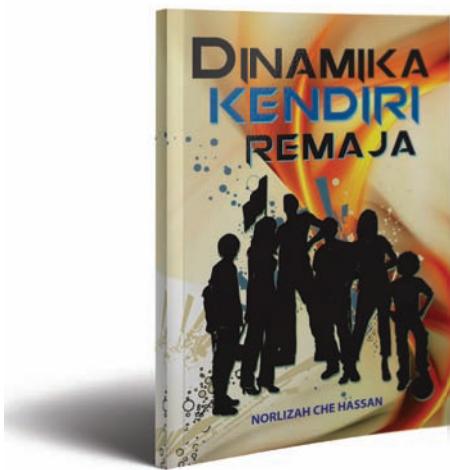

RM32.00

131 pages

category: Agriculture

This book, is but a small tribute towards Japanese contributions in agriculture, science and socio-economic development in Malaysia and the ASEAN region. It also attempts to enumerate their efforts in various fields including anthropology, history, and travel. Citations of local counterparts and other international workers are also included to indicate the extent of interaction and cooperation at regional level. References are obtained from primary and secondary sources.

There would be other references inadvertently missed out in this publication, hence, would not feature the full sphere of benevolence of Japan towards the ASEAN region. Suffice to say that they have worked on major aspects or crops for human development covering crops such as rice, sago, maize, cassava, flora and fauna, pharmacology, animal husbandry, hydrobiology and meteorology, geology, maritime, anthropology and culture, economics, history, travel and religion. A brief introduction is provided for most of the sectors followed by citations of research, reports or papers. The ASEAN countries are dependent on Japan for various cutting edge technologies and developmental progress now and in the future.

Kategori: Alam Sekitar

Buku ini mengenangkan pendekatan ekopsikologi, suatu pendekatan yang menggabungkan dua aspek kehidupan iaitu ekologi dan psikologi. Hari ini manusia kurang menikmati keindahan alam semesta. Kehidupan manusia ini berdepan dengan pelbagai kemusnahan kepada muka bumi akibat daripada ketamakan dan kerakusan manusia untuk mengambil keuntungan dari sumber alam semulajadi. Keindahan alam wujud disebabkan adanya keseimbangan antara manusia dan kehidupan lain. Buku ini diterbitkan atas kesedaran bahawa manusia perlu memikirkan dengan mendalam serta mengambil langkah wajar untuk menyekat pelbagai pencemaran dan pemusnahan sumber kehidupan alam semula jadi agar keseimbangan diwujudkan semula.
